The sound of the guns can no longer be heard.

6 r. M.:

(To Marshal Soult.) My Cousin: I believe that Marshal Lanncs attacked Saalfeld to-day. There has been a hri.sk cannonade, but it lasted only two hours; I don't know the result. As soon as I am secure on my left things will get lively.

Order for Marshal Davout to march on Naumburg as rapidly as he can,

Marshal Latinos is marching on Jena.

(To Marshal Lannes.) I have received, with great pleasure, the news of your action on the 10th. I hud heard the sound of the guns and moved a division in your direction to support you. The death of Prince Louis of Prussia seems like a punishment of Heaven, for he is the real author of the war.

All the intercepted correspondence we get shows that the enemy have lost their heads. They arc* debating night and day, and don't know what decision to come to. You perceive that my army is massed, and that I am on their road to Dresden arid Merlin. Our skill now will consist in attacking everything we meet, so as to beat the enemy in detail and while they are concentrating. Whan I my that we must attack all we meet, I mean that we must attack everything that is on the march and not in an advantageous position.
